2. [redacted] Accompanied [redacted] NARCOG, to a meeting with Representative Frank Horton (R., N.Y.) and David Lovenheim, his Administrative Assistant, for debriefing on their narcotics survey trip to Europe and the Middle East. Horton travelled at the White House request. In brief, he noted that the information provided him by [redacted] and Jack Maury prior to their departure was of great assistance in both the organization and conduct of his meetings in the various cities he visited. He was also complimentary about the assistance provided him and the level of effort and caliber of Agency people that he met on the trip. The outline of Horton's report that is in preparation for the White House was reviewed [redacted]
